How to Use Reward Charts

A simple guide for parents and carers

A fun way to encourage good habits and celebrate achievements!

What is a Reward Chart?

A reward chart helps children stay motivated by giving them a star or sticker when they complete a task or show positive behaviour. When they reach their goal, they get a special reward!

Why Use a Reward Chart?

- Builds good habits
- Encourages positive behaviour
- Boosts confidence
- Makes daily tasks fun
- Helps children stay motivated

How to Use the Reward Charts:

1 Choose a Chart

Pick a chart that matches your child's goal or interest.

2 Set a Goal

Talk to your child and decide what they will work towards.

3 Write the Reward

Write a special reward in the "My Reward" box (for example: park trip, new book, extra playtime).

4 Add a Star or Sticker

Each time they complete the task or show good behaviour, add a star or sticker on the chart.

5 Celebrate!

When they reach the final star, celebrate and give them their reward.

Example

Start here
Begin from the first star.

Path of Stars
Add a star or sticker each time your child completes the task.

My Goal
Write what your child is working towards.

My Reward
Write the special reward they will get at the end.

Finish
When all stars are filled, celebrate! You did it!
